CWP No. 1671 of 2007

Date of Decision: 1.2.2007

Pawan she-Shiksha Kendra and another.

....Petitioners.

Versus

Punjab School Education Board and others.

....Respondents.

Coram:- Hon'ble Mr.Justice J.S. Khehar.
Hon'ble Mr. Justice S.D. Anand.

Present: Mr. Premjit Kalia, Advocate for the petitioner.

J.S. Khehar, J. (Oral).

In the instant writ petition, the primary prayer of the petitioners is for the issuance of a writ in the nature of certiorari, so as to quash the order dated 11.1.2007 passed by the Secretary, Punjab School Education Board. A perusal of the aforesaid order reveals, that the authority to run the school, under reference, is subject to the decision of the civil Court. The pleadings of the instant writ petition, and particularly, para 11 thereof reveal, that there is a dispute over the management of the institute, and that, the aforesaid dispute is pending adjudication before the civil Courts at Amritsar.

In view of the above, we are of the view, that the petitioners have unnecessarily approached this Court by filing the instant writ petition under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. The petitioners, if they be so advised, may seek the redressal of their grievances from the same Court where the controversy between the two managing committees, is pending consideration.

Dismissed.
